DIA Inside Out Program Comes to Westland

Westland, MI (August 9, 2021) - The Detroit Institute of Art's (DIA) Inside Out program, now in its twelfth year, has brought six reproductions of masterpieces from DIA's collection to the Westland community.

"The City of Westland is proud to accept these six pieces and have chosen community buildings, Westland City Hall and some of Westland park's as incredible display locations for this celebration of art," commented Mayor William R. Wild. "We are thrilled to see this program return to our community."

The City of Westland is one of 27 communities spread across Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties with 6 timeless pieces from the DIA Inside Out Program. For more information on DIA in Westland visit www.cityofwestland.com
