Detroit Red Wing Alumni Return for 11th Annual Charity Hockey Game

Westland, MI (February 14, 2022) Mayor William R. Wild, together with his Westland Wild Wings, are hitting the ice once again for the 11th Annual Hockey Night in Westland charity game against the Detroit Red Wings Alumni Association.

Players will strap up their skates for the hockey game taking place on Friday,

February 18 at the Mike Modano Ice Arena located at 6210 N. Wildwood St. in Westland. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. with the pre-game fun starting at 7:00 p.m. The puck will drop at 7:30 p.m.

Past Red Wing alumni players have been Darren McCarty, Mickey Redmond, John Ogrodnick, Larry Murphy, Petr Klima, Jimmy Carson, Dino Cicirelli, and more. The event is presented by North Brothers Ford. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children ages 6-12. Children five-years-old and younger are free!

"Hockey Night in Westland is one of the City's most anticipated sporting events drawing more than 800 spectators each year," said Mayor Wild. "While we battle it out on the ice, the true winners of the event are the youth hockey and figure skating groups as well as members of the community who utilize the arena. Proceeds from the event help fund improvement projects at the Mike Modano Arena.

Tickets are available online at <https://westland.ticketleap.com/2022-hockey-night-in-westland/>. Hockey lovers can also purchase tickets at Westland City Hall and Mike Modano Ice Arena. Seating is limited so be sure to purchase your ticket today.
