Westland Hosts Splash Park Grand Re-Opening & FREE Community Gathering/Movie Night

2022

Westland, MI- June 13,

On Wednesday, June 15, The City of Westland is hosting its Annual Free Community Gathering – Movie Night with a Grand Re-Opening of its popular H2O Zone Splash Park to really make this a hot event to cool off at and enjoy all the free amenities. The fun will begin at 5pm, in Tattan Park (1901 N. Carlson) when the DDA (Downtown Development Authority) cuts the ribbon and unleashes the spectacular new and improved H2O Zone with interactive sounds and lights, and a spectacular immersive, kid friendly dinosaur experience for children to enjoy. You must see it to believe it!

The Community Gathering, at 5:30pm will include free hot dogs, chips and water, as well as a chance to meet the Police K-9 dogs, visit the Fire Department Smoke Safety Trailer, sit on a Police motorcycle and talk with the City Administration. The concession stand will be open for additional purchases.

The Movie Night, which starts at 7pm, of course is a tribute to the Grand Re-Opening of the dinosaur themed H2O Zone is “The Good Dinosaur”. Mayor William Wild is providing the free popcorn, you should provide yourself a comfy blanket or lawn chair to enjoy the show in real comfort!

“We like to get a little celebration in Westland to start our summer off a little early and in a big way. We hope all our families come out and take advantage of all the free activities and amenities. What better way to cool the kids off on a hot day than to get to enjoy our new H2O Zone, eat with your family and enjoy a movie”, said Mayor William R. Wild.
