Westland Mayor Kevin Coleman Appoints Assistant Parks & Recreation Director

Westland, MI – Mayor Kevin Coleman is excited to announce the appointment of Ms. Jacqueline Smith as the City of Westland's first Assistant Parks & Recreation Director.

On Monday, November 20th the Westland City Council unanimously approved the creation of this new position to expand our Parks & Recreation Department and assist the Director in planning and executing enhanced programs and City events with a focus on community engagement.

The Parks & Recreation Department oversees 17 City parks & operates the H2O Zone, Park Ranger Program and the Westland Rotary Canine Corral. With this expansion, the City plans to offer a wide range of programming activities for kids, families, adults and seniors.

"I would like to thank the Westland City Council for their approval of this new position", stated Mayor Coleman. I am committed to creating more recreational opportunities for residents of all ages and in order to accomplish this, we need to put our support behind expanding the Parks & Recreation Department."
