If you know or see someone out in the cold, please contact 911 or the non-emergency police line at (734) 722-9600. Our emergency personnel will work diligently to ensure they are taken to a safe place to stay warm.

Residents are also asked to keep our four legged friends in mind during this extreme cold weather. Animals cannot handle being left outside in temperatures below freezing for more than a few minutes without being at extreme risk for hypothermia, frostbite and even death. Please report findings of animals left outside without proper shelter to animal control at the non-emergency police line at (734) 722-9600.

For more information, please contact (734) 713-3888
